

[Original Version] of the Shopping Cart

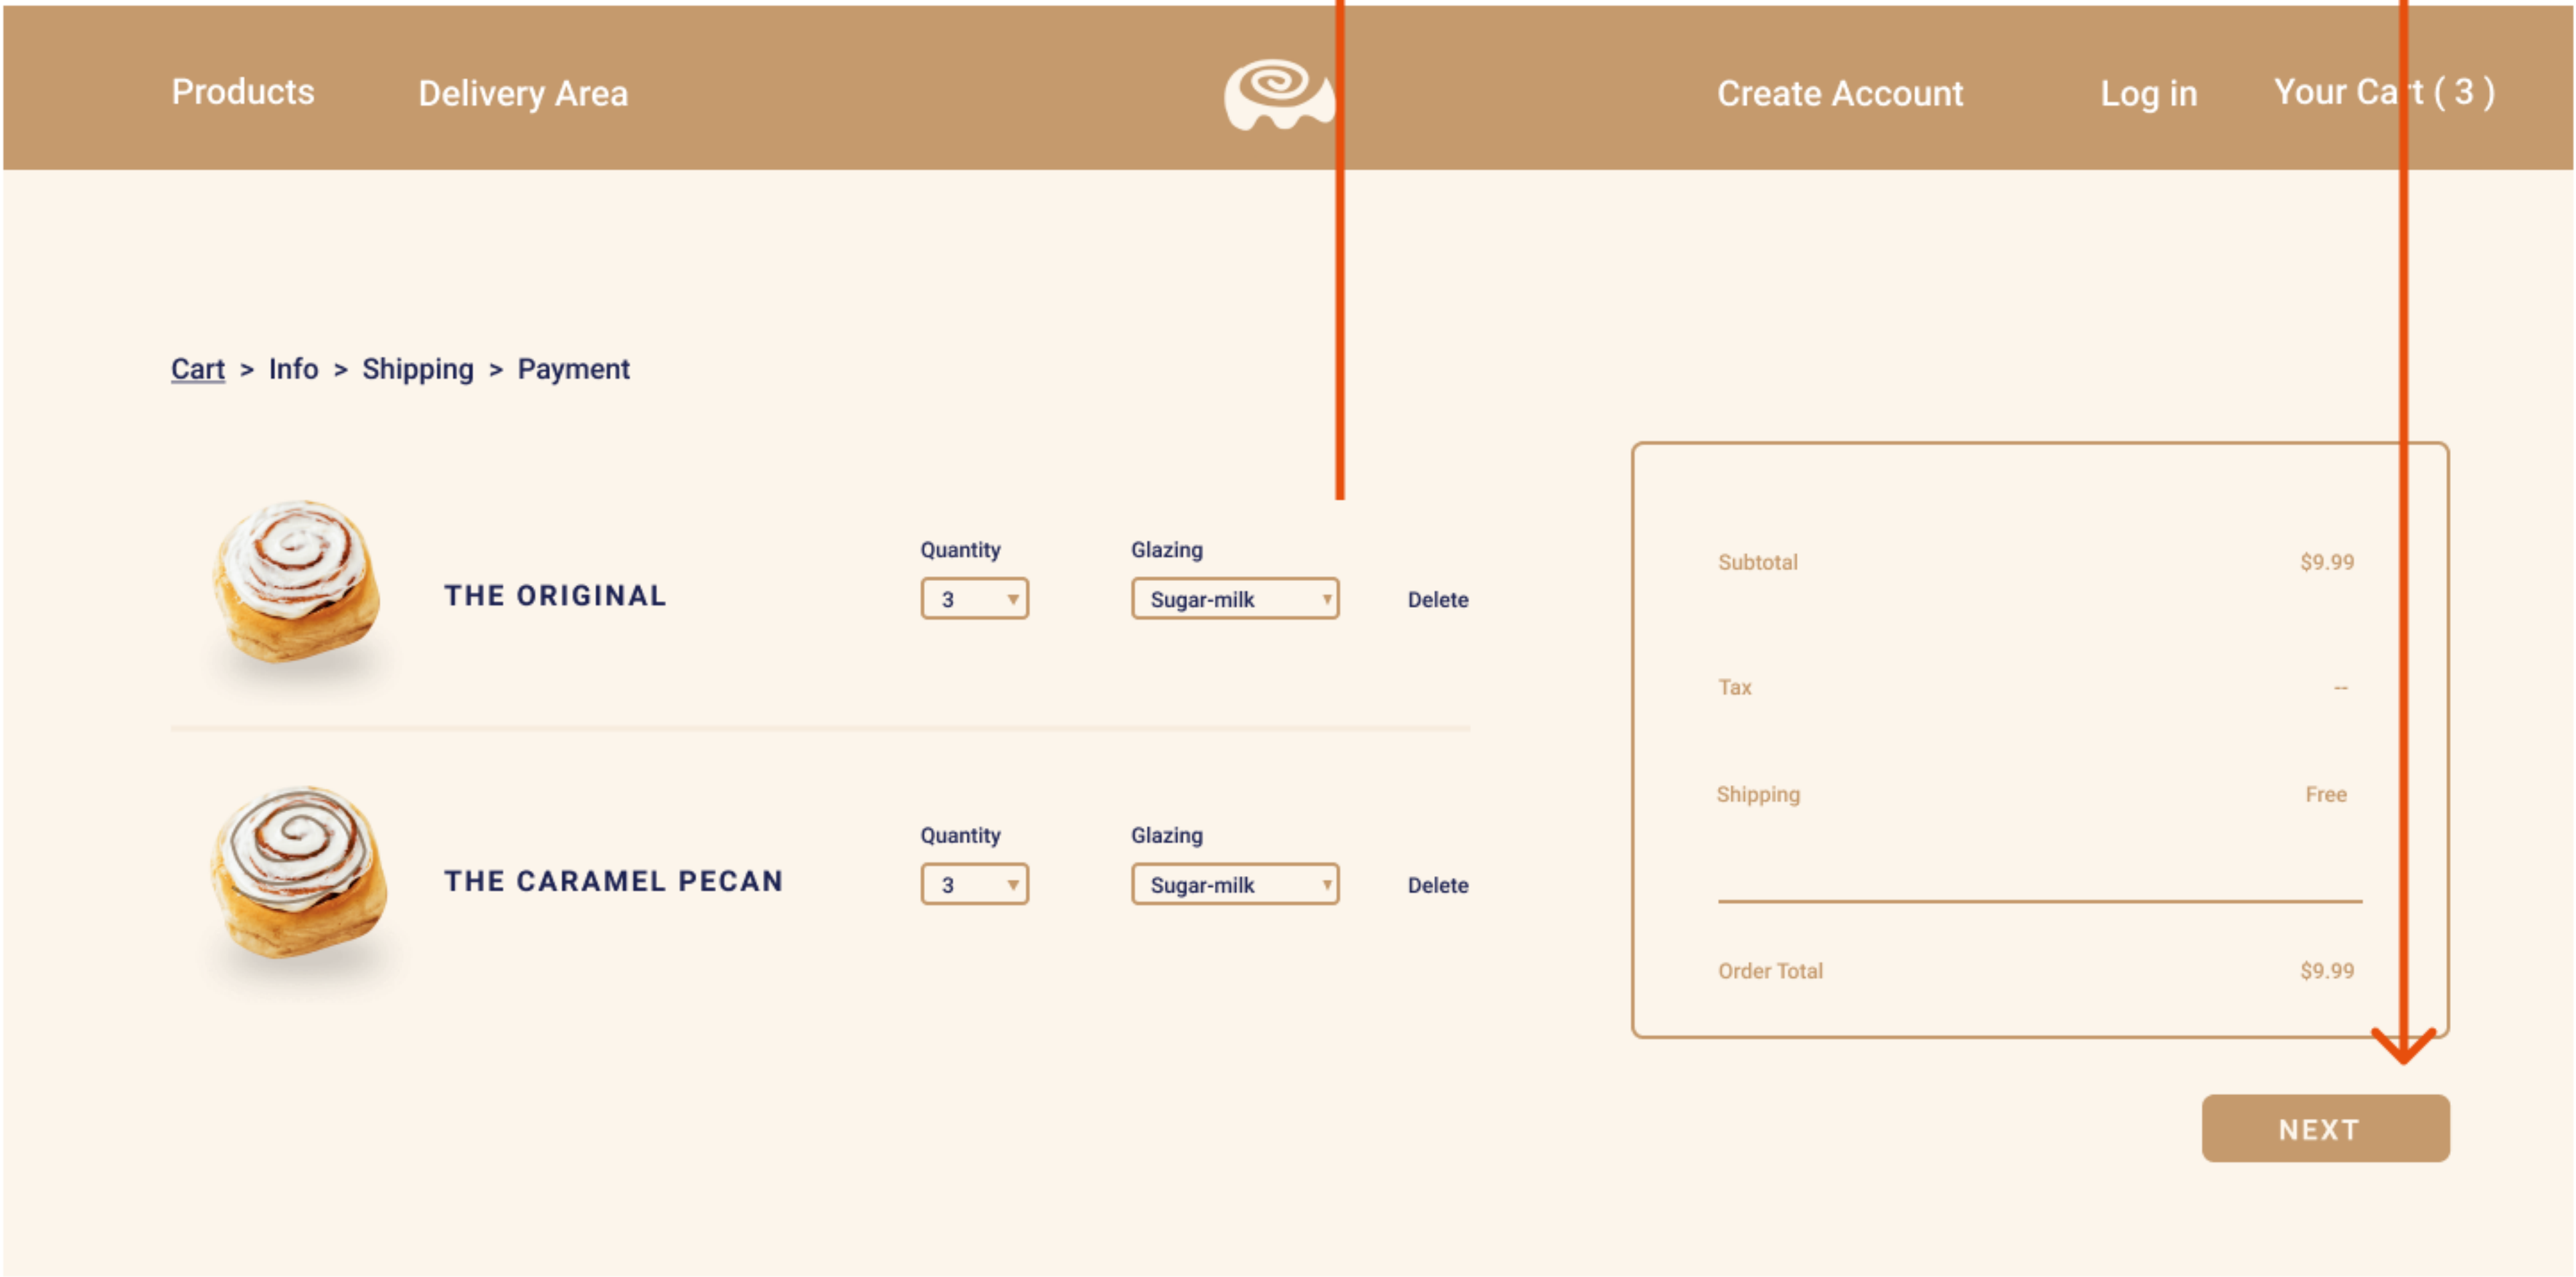

Design Change: Considering what we have learned about the importance of including important information and action button “above the fold”, I decided to move the checkout summary to the right

[Updated Low-Fi Sketch] of the Shopping Cart

[Updated High-Fi] of the Shopping Cart

Design Decision: Drop-down for quantity and glazing so it is easy for users to make changes

Design Change: Relocation of the “Next” button so users know where to click at thier first sight
